PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Executive – Instructional Design

Singer Sri Lanka PLC – Head Office, Colombo, Sri Lanka | July 2024 – Present

- Work directly with the Marketing Department on corporate branding and employee branding initiatives, contributing creative direction, content and production across both internal and customer-facing campaigns.
- Develop employee branding and employer brand content -culture films, internal campaign videos, announcements and recognition pieces -that carries the corporate identity through to the workforce.
- Produce brand and product video content supporting marketing campaigns and product launches, handling concept, script, storyboard, edit, motion graphics and final delivery.
- Apply and police brand guidelines across every digital touchpoint, keeping tone of voice and visual identity consistent between marketing, HR and product communications.
- Create social and digital content for the group's marketing channels, adapting assets to the format and audience of each platform.
- Produce training content and e-learning modules distributed to retail staff and dealers nationwide, translating technical product specifications into accessible content that supports sales performance.
- Administer the group's digital learning platform, covering content publishing and engagement reporting.

Freelance Digital Marketing, Content & Video Producer

Self-Employed, Sri Lanka | 2021 – 2025

- Planned and ran paid social and search campaigns for client brands using Meta Ads Manager and Google Ads, covering audience targeting, creative testing, budget pacing and optimisation.
- Reported campaign performance through Google Analytics and platform dashboards, translating reach, engagement and conversion data into recommendations clients could act on.
- Built brand identities and marketing collateral as art director, including logos, campaign key visuals, brand guidelines and social media asset systems.
- Delivered video editing and post-production for corporate, commercial and event clients, covering rough cut, colour grading, sound design, motion graphics and final delivery.
- Applied AI-assisted audio and visualisation tools to produce voice-over and narration, and to generate concept boards and campaign visuals that shortened the approval cycle with clients.
- Wrote long- and short-form content for clients, including campaign copy, scripts, social captions and corporate profiles.
- Published freelance feature articles in Sri Lankan newspapers, developing story angles and filing to editorial deadlines.
- Managed client briefs, revision cycles and delivery deadlines independently, from first consultation through to final handover.

Assistant Producer

Ogilvy Public Relations Sri Lanka, Colombo, Sri Lanka | 2023 – 2024

- Coordinated pre-production and production for corporate and brand campaigns, managing schedules, crews, locations, vendors and on-site logistics.
- Shaped campaign storytelling and content formats to suit each channel and audience segment, working to brand and communication strategies set with the client.
- Led video editing, post-production and SFX integration for deliverables across TV, digital and social channels.
- Supported brand activations and campaign launch events, coordinating production requirements and capturing content for post-event publicity.
- Handled client servicing as the link between creative teams and brand stakeholders, translating client briefs into production plans.

Public Relations and Media Officer (Events & Communications)

Ridee Viharaya & Gangaramaya Temple, Kurunegala / Kandy, Sri Lanka | 2022 – 2023

- Planned and coordinated major national tourism and religious events drawing large public attendance, working with organising committees on programme flow, stakeholder liaison and on-the-day communications.
- Managed media relations and the digital presence for those events, drafting press releases and media statements and coordinating coverage with print and broadcast journalists.
- Built promotional campaigns for local tourism across social channels, planning content calendars and producing the assets that ran on them.
- Photographed and filmed events, then edited the footage for release across owned and earned channels.
- Produced event visualisation and promotional materials in advance of each event, helping organisers and stakeholders agree on concepts before execution.
